New Router Advice - [Solved]

2019/07/01

Hey! So I've had a Sky Router (Model SR102) for a long time now, but I want to set up my own router to get a more stable connection. I'm wondering if its possible? I play a few games on console frequently so I need to get a better internet. The router is downstairs and my console is upstairs but I can't move the router as it is connected to a master socket so I would love to get a router which I can move right next to my console. I'm pretty sure that I would be able to set the new router up, I just want to know if I can get a new one without any problems. Thanks.
